Lecture Meetings 2018/2019

September: Mass Extinctions: Looking down not up. Prof David Harper

October: Unstable Ground? An Engineering geologist's view of hazards and risks. David Shilston

November: Exploring a newly-formed mid-ocean ridge in the Equatorial Pacific-challenges and some answers. Prof Joe Cann.

December: Members' Evening

January: New Advances in Understanding the British and Irish Ice Sheet with particular reference to Cumbria. Prof David Evans.

February: Exceptional Preservation of Dinosaur Eggs from the Upper Cretaceous of Henan Province, People's Republic of China. Dr John Nudds.

March: AGM and President's Address.

Lecture Meetings 2019/2020

September: Scotland's Jurassic Park: The Isle of Skye and New Fossil Discoveries. Dr Challands

October: From Plates to Cityscapes-geological impacts in modern urban settings, lessons from Southeast Asia. Dr Leslie Graham

November: Underground Carbon Storage: the key to mitigating climate change. Prof Andy Chadwick

December: Members Evening

January: From small rockfalls to entire mountainside collapses-how landslides shape the landscape and pose a (growing?) risk. Dr Dunning

February: Climate Change Debate with Prof. Terence Sloan and Ashley Francis.

March: AGM and President's Address.